

Who inspires you to be a better person?

When did your life change for the better?

What is one song that speaks to your heart?

What is a comfort item you had as a child?

Describe your favorite spiritual place and tell why it's your favorite.

What have you accomplished that makes you proud?

What job have you hated the most?

What job have you loved the most?

What one thing have you done within the past week to make someone's life better?

If you were going on a spiritual retreat, what three things would you take and why? (besides your Bible)

What's your favorite memory of your childhood best friend?

Describe a perfect day.

Share what you think heaven will look and feel like for you.

Name and tell about a spiritual hero in your life.

What's your saddest childhood memory?

What spiritual lesson has a grandparent taught you?

When were you the loneliest?

What book has influenced you the most? (besides the Bible)

What spiritual traditions do you have?

Tell us about what you consider most beautiful in life.

What specific life lesson changed you the most?

What prayer do you most often pray?

If you could only change one, would you change world hunger or world peace?

Share about a time you answered God's call.

Are you truly content with what you have and what you do in your life?

Tell us about a time you grieved.

What scripture has changed you and why?

What an experience that had a big spiritual impact on you and why?

When was a time when someone showed you deep compassion/love like Jesus?